MIRACLE OF THE WORLD

ANGKOR WAT - ANGKOR THOM - BANTEAY SREI - TONLE SAP

- 13.00 Take you to Ta Prohm where was built for the mother of King Jayavarman VII and used to be a famous Buddhist temple later it become globally renowned after the movie "Tomb Raider I" was screened throughout the world. The Temple is famous for the huge trees and their roots that have taken over the structures but also held the temple together and kept it from collapsing. Many folks go there to take pictures with those trees and roots so it is quite crowded most of the time. Then, take you to Angkor Wat where unlike other that were built to worship Hindu Gods or the Buddha, Angkor Wat was built as for a tomb of King Suryavarman II . Therefore, it is the only temple that faces the West, which is believe to be the direction of death. Most people visit Angkor Wat in the afternoon, so that they don't have to face the sun. Angkor Wat has 3 floors. The first floor contains galleries with the most amazing, longest running bas-reliefs in the world. Most of the sculptures illustrate Hindu cosmology and the Ramayana. The second floor also has galleries and very steep the central tower on the third floor represents the mountain where the Hindu god Vishnu resides. So climbing up to the top floor is like going up to the heaven to pay respect to him. Besides its size and bas-reliefs, Angkor Wat is also famous for sculptures of Apsara angles. There are as many as 1,635 of them around the temple.
- 19.00 Have dinner in buffet style at restaurant where offers the show name's Apsara angles dance and other show. After you are full and the beautiful show finished we will take you to the hotel for relaxing.
